DECISION AND ORDER

ECF

In accordance with the court's order dated January 12, 2001, counsel for the plaintiffs have submitted for in camera review the retainer agreements between counsel and the various plaintiffs here that had not previously been presented to the court. Upon review of those agreements, under the same analysis employed by the court in its earlier ruling regarding the disqualification motion made in this case, the court finds no basis for disclosure of the agreements to the defendants, or for the court to take further action regarding continued representation of the plaintiffs by their present counsel.

The court having resealed the retainer agreements in the envelope in which they were presented to this magistrate judge, the envelope is hereby submitted to the clerk of court to be filed under seal, and it shall be kept by the clerk of court under seal and not unsealed except by specific order of a judge of this court who is assigned to this action.
